Fees and payment options

Mercy Community offers a variety of accommodation and payment options.

We strongly encourage you and your family or representative to seek independent financial advice prior to entering into a Resident Agreement.

The published accommodation payment prices are the maximum rates and apply to those with sufficient assets and financial means. You may choose to pay for your accommodation by a Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD) paid as a lump sum, a Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP), or a combination of both, see the table below.

Should you have limited assets and financial means, you may be treated as 'supported' by the Department of Human Services which means you will not be required to pay the published Accommodation Payment, or it will be a lower price.

The Accommodation Payment prices quoted apply on and after 1 January 2021 and are subject to change.

100% Refundable
Accommodation
Deposit (RAD)

$650,000

100% Daily
Accommodation
Payment (DAP)

$71.41

Combination Example:

75% RAD at $487,500
and DAP $17.85

Combination Example:

50% RAD at $325,000
and DAP $35.71

Income tested fee

This fee is calculated on an individual basis. This fee is an additional contribution towards the cost of care that some people may be required to pay. The Department of Human Services will calculate if you are required to pay this fee based on an assessment of your income and assets. You will be advised by the Department of the amount (if any).

Please note that if you are a member of a couple, half of your combined income and assets are considered in determining this fee, regardless of which partner earns the income or owns the asset.

There are annual and lifetime caps that apply to this fee. Once these caps are reached, you cannot be asked to pay further income tested fees. Any income tested fees you have paid under a Home Care Package prior to moving into an aged care residence will also contribute to your annual and lifetime caps.

Basic daily fee

A basic daily fee contributes toward your day to day living costs such as meals, housekeeping, laundry and electricity. Everyone who enters an aged care residence is required to pay this fee. The basic daily fee increases each March and September.

The basic daily fee rate is calculated based on 85% of the single person rate of the basic Age Pension. This applies even if you are a member of a couple.

Further information is available on the Australian Government's Department of Health website.
